

Walking in obedience with Christ builds assurance that we will some day be in the presence of the Lord. "For yet a little while, And He who is coming will come and will not tarry." Meanwhile, by faith, assurance grows that we are not among those whose profession proves to be vain. "Now the just shall live by faith . . . we are not of those who draw back to perdition but of those who believe to the saving of the soul."

Dear Father, I need more spiritual stamina. I desire to please You by obedience. I long to walk in more assurance. I praise You that all this is ours in Christ, by faith, Amen.

The flow of blessings in our life is directly related to our passing blessings along to someone else.

PASTOR'S VOICE

Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ from whom all blessings flow, to all the Absolute Worship Family & Friends.

Once again, we have been given the opportunity to lift up the wonderful name of Jesus. It is by this glorious name that we can celebrate this great plan of salvation.

As we prepare this week for another great milestone in the life of Absolute Worship Ministries. The first "Live Fire" worship conference will be held this Thursday Friday and Saturday. Closing out on Sunday AM with the awesome teaching of Pastor Harold Chaala.

It has been the vision of this ministry since its inception to learn, train, and empower believers to learn how to love and worship God as he divinely desires for us to do.

We need each of you to get a ticket today and be available to help in anyway to welcome the many souls that will be coming to share in the conference.

Also remember Minister Tamara Adams and the Focus in the Fire Team in prayer as they lead the charge as Judah did in the Old Testament.

May God's Peace be yours, Bishop George

DAY BY DAY BY GRACE

by Bob Hoekstra

GREAT BLESSINGS THROUGH LIVING BY FAITH

Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise: "For yet a little while, And He who is coming will come and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith; but if anyone draws back, my soul has no pleasure in him." But we are not of those who draw back to perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

(Heb 10:35-39)

Our present verses represent the third time that Habakkuk's pronouncement on living by faith is repeated in the New Testament. "The just shall live by his faith" (Hab 2:4). In Rom 1:17, it was connected with the gospel of Christ. In Gal 3:12, it was contrasted with living under the law. Here, it is seen as the pathway to great blessings like spiritual endurance, God-pleasing obedience, and pressing ahead in assurance.

The opening exhortation warns about forsaking bold dependence upon the Lord. "Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward." The loss of great blessing is the reason given. The Lord wants us to trust in Him without wavering, from the beginning of faith unto the end of our earthly pilgrimage. This makes us consistent partakers of the blessings of grace that are ours in Christ. "For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end" (Heb 3:14).

These blessings include endurance. "For you have need of endurance." The Christian life requires spiritual stamina. The journey of growth, trials, service, and battle can become wearisome. We can be tempted to slack off, to quit pressing ahead. Such is always vain thinking for us, and it is displeasing to the Lord. "If anyone draws back, my soul has no pleasure in him." It is by faith that we persevere in the Christian race. "Let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith" (Heb 12:1-2).

Also, these blessings of faith include obedience and assurance. "You have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise." As we walk by faith, we are enabled to do God's will.
