

Let us remember, also, when we are tossed on the seas of life, or are called to descend into valleys of shadow, that faith will still dare to sing. But in the second stanza of the psalm, from Psa 95:6 onward, we are confronted with the sad story of Exo 17:1-16. There are Meribahs and Massahs in all lives, where we murmur against God's dealings and lose our inward rest. There is a sabbatism of the heart when the will is yielded to God's will, and the bean is cleansed from its wayward whims; when the very peace that fills the divine nature settles down on the heart. That experience is an entrance into God's rest. It remains unexhausted for all the people of God. Let us not miss it through default of faith!

Benediction

Praises to the Most High God. Greetings to all of the Absolute Worship Ministry Family. There is so much that we can be thankful to God for.

As we see this year swiftly coming to a close, we can say that if it had not been for our God, who was on our side, we would truly be in a miserable place. For it has been His mercy and grace that has covered us through sickness, death, loss, and pain. Our God is worthy of the praise, honor and glory.

On last Wednesday night, I taught a class to Absolute about Holiness to the Lord. It is high time for God's people to honor, reverence, and lift up our God Who is the true and living God. He is Holy and deserves to be exalted in the Earth. God desires for us to walk, live, and serve Him in holiness. It doesn't matter what the world may do. We must represent our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

For any of you that would like to sow a love gift to help your Pastor: please send to my cash app below, thank you.

Blessings to all, Bishop G

... when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will. (Lev 22:29)

SACRIFICE OF THANKSGIVING

LEVITICUS 22:1-33

In this chapter we have diverse laws concerning the priests and sacrifices, all for preserving the honor of the sanctuary. Let us recollect with gratitude that our great High Priest cannot be hindered by anything from the discharge of His office. Let us also remember, that the Lord requires us to reverence His name, His truths, His ordinances, and commandments. Let us beware of hypocrisy, and examine ourselves concerning our sinful defilements, seeking to be purified from them in the blood of Christ, and by His sanctifying Spirit. Whoever attempts to expiate his own sin, or draws near in the pride of self-righteousness, puts as great an affront on Christ, as he who comes to the Lord's table from the gratification of sinful lusts. Nor can the minister who loves the souls of the people, suffer them to continue in this dangerous delusion. He must call upon them, not only to repent of their sins, and forsake them; but to put their whole trust in the atonement of Christ, by faith in His name, for pardon and acceptance with God; thus only will the Lord make them holy, as His own people.

Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms. (Psa 95:2)

PSALMS 95:1-11

PRAISE THE LORD AND TEMPT HIM NOT

This psalm is deeply woven into the life of the Church, because of the worshipful strain which pervades it, and also because of the illuminating manner in which it is introduced into the argument of Heb 3:1-19; Heb 4:1-16. The works of God in creation are specially enumerated as incentives to praise. The sea, the hills, the deep places of the earth have often inspired the minstrel, but how much more the devout soul!
