

THE TIME-TEST

Gen_41:33-44

God never forgets, and never fails. Waiting is the acid test of strength. The turn in the long road comes at last. It had been a long road for Joseph. It had been a desperately rough road, too. There was the slimy pit, the brothers' treachery, the slave chains, the terrible palace temptation, and the prison cell. But strength believes God. It bides his time. It trusts in the darkest hour. And God never fails and never forgets.

Benediction

Glory to our Lord Jesus Christ from Whom all blessings flow. Thank God for His continual love toward us.

As we gather today, we are reflecting on the death of our Lord Jesus Christ. It should bring joy to every believer when we think of the greatest gift that was ever given to mankind: Jesus our Savior. Without this Gift we would be eternally lost in our sin; but because of the precious blood of Christ, we have received freedom from Satan's bondage.

Today, as we partake of the broken body and shed blood of Jesus, we must examine ourselves to make sure that there are no issues that we haven't dealt with in our lives: unconfessed sin that has caused us to be separated from the Lord. None of us are perfect, but God is calling for holiness. He died to give us authority over the power of sin. We can't get in the habit of making excuses for our bad behavior. We must allow the Holy Spirit to do His work in our lives to be pleasing to our God.

I will need everyone's help this week as we prepare for our Dinner Theater on Saturday Dec. 10th at 4pm. Minister Elizabeth McKinney will be flying in from Texas on Wednesday. We'll need to set up the building for Saturday. Please adjust your schedules so that we can make this a glorious event. Attention all men: Your help will be needed to bring in and set up the tables and banquet chairs from the small building.

Please mark your calendar for Dec. 25th 11am-noon for a special video presentation and gift exchange. Dec. 31st at 9:30pm for our special New Year's Eve Service at AWM with local guest ministries.

Finally, join us on Jan. 1st at 3pm for a special New Year's Day worship and fellowship. AWM New Year's Choir and AWM ministers will be preaching during that service.

Yours in the Service of Jesus,
Bishop George Williams, Jr

"PERFECT THROUGH SUFFERING"

By Charles E. Cowman

For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. (Heb 2:10)

Steel is iron plus fire. Soil is rock, plus heat, or glacier crushing. Linen is flax plus the bath that cleans, the comb that separates, and the flail that pounds, and the shuttle that weaves. Human character must have a plus attached to it. The world does not forget great characters. But great characters are not made of luxuries, they are made by suffering.

I heard of a mother who brought into her home as a companion to her own son, a crippled boy who was also a hunchback. She had warned her boy to be very careful in his relations to him, and not to touch the sensitive part of his life but go right on playing with him as if he were an ordinary boy. She listened to her son as they were playing; and after a few minutes he said to his companion: "Do you know what you have got on your back?" The little hunchback was embarrassed, and he hesitated a moment. The boy said: "It is the box in which your wings are; and some day God is going to cut it open, and then you will fly away and be an angel."

Some day, God is going to reveal the fact to every Christian, that the very principles they now rebel against, have been the instruments which He used in perfecting their characters and moulding them into perfection, polished stones for His great building yonder. -- Cortland Myers

Suffering is a wonderful fertilizer to the roots of character. The great object of this life is character. This is the only thing we can carry with us into eternity. . . . To gain the most of it and the best of it is the object of probation. -- Austin Phelps

"By the thorn road and no other is the mount of vision won."
