PASTOR'S VOICE

Greetings, Absolute Worship Ministries, family, and friends. I give God thanks for his continual blessings upon us. We must count it a privilege to be kept by his power and might.

Today we have been allowed to gather and have the awesome opportunity to lift-up the wonderful name of Jesus. Each time that we get this opportunity we should value it with all our heart. As we see the change taking place within our world. It should cause us to want to draw closer to our savior and Lord. Our world today is not focused on pleasing the creator. but only to please the carnal appetite of their sinful flesh.

The real purpose of us gathering each time we come into the House of the Lord. Is to help prepare us for the day that we will meet our maker and give an account for all that has been done in our lives. The sad thing is that many do not realize how short our lives are. Very few of us have the opportunity to live a long life. So, we must be conscious of how important it is to make things right with our creator while we have a chance.

We would like to give a special welcome to Apostle Desmon Dobbins. she is a gifted, anointed woman of God, she has travelled the world ministering and teaching deliverance to those that are bound. We are indeed happy to have this great woman of God in our midst today.

As you know we are approaching the countdown for several major events in the Absolute Worship Ministry. First, we will be preparing to worship on the resurrection Sunday 2023 which will be on April 9th.

We would like to make a special appeal to have everyone reach out to our youth and have them present in this awesome day of celebration of our risen savior. Followed by are 35th pastoral and church anniversary that will begin with our dinner on April the 15th at 6:00 PM. Take note of the flyer that is in the bulletin for the following anniversary dates.

Finally, if you are interested in making Absolute Worship Ministries your church home, we invite you to go to absoluteworship.org and fill out the information on the membership page. One of our staff members will contact you and get you Ready for our new members classes.

Don't forget to join us in one of our many prayer conference calls during the week. Set your alarm so that you won't miss the opportunity to connect with the body of Christ on the prayer line.

May God's Peace be yours, Bishop George

Daily Devotion

Reflecting on the Holy Spirit and Grace

And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they have pierced; they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn. (Zec 12:10)

Let's take a reflective look at our meditations on the Holy Spirit as a reminder that we are still studying about the grace of God. In considering how to live by the fullness of the Spirit, we have examined how to live more fully by the grace of God.

In Zec 4:6, we observed the connection between living by the Spirit and living by the grace of God. "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit." Serving the Lord is accomplished by the work of the Spirit in and through our lives, not by natural capabilities. The next verse restates this truth in terms of God's grace. "And he shall bring forth the capstone with shouts of "Grace, grace to it!" Every completed task in the service of God is accomplished by His grace (God's undeserved resources), not by our ingenuity or merit.

We also saw how the early church experienced this relationship between the Spirit and grace. "They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness . . . And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all" (Act 4:31, Act 4:33). The boldness they experienced through the Holy Spirit is described as a result of great grace at work upon them.

Jesus came to establish a new covenant. "This cup is the new covenant in My blood" (Luk 22:20). This covenant was characterized by grace, in contrast to the old covenant that Moses set in place. "For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ" (Joh 1:17). This new covenant of grace is also a covenant of the Spirit. "Our sufficiency is from God, who also made us sufficient as ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life" (2Co 3:5-6)

When the Lord Jesus returns and Israel humbly bows to Him as their Messiah, this wondrous response will be the result of "the Spirit of grace" (Zec 12:10) being poured out upon them. This glorious title, identifying grace with the Holy Spirit, beautifully sums up the grand truth that living by grace and walking in the Spirit are two perspectives on the same precious reality.

O God of all Grace, I long to live by Your grace day by day. Lord, I thank You that grace is not merely some principle that I must apply, but rather a resource You must impart. Would You therefore pour out upon me in fullness the Spirit of grace? Amen.
