OBEDIENCE MEANS RHYTHM

Jeremiah 6:11-16

When the heart's wrong, there can't be peace. Selfishness is a gangrene, eating at the very vitals. Sin is a cancer, poisoning the blood. Peace is the rhythm of our wills with Jesus' love-will. Disobedience breaks the music. Failure to keep in touch makes discord. We have broken off. The peace can't get in. Jesus made peace by his blood. We get it only by keeping in full touch with him.

Benediction

Bishop George Williams, Jr.

Greetings to the absolute worship family and friends. May the rich blessings of God be upon you all. Our God has given us another opportunity to lift-up his holy name.

Each time that we are granted the opportunity together and glorify art king we should be grateful. For we do not know the time are the day that are name will be called and we will Have to leave this life.

In reality that is the reason why we gather each Sunday to learn how we must prepare for our exit from this life. Many have different opinions about what happens after this life. But God's Word says that we will appear before the judgment seat of Christ and will give an account for the things that we have done in this life. This is the reason why our spiritual preparation is so important to get right. We can't be guessing and assuming how the end is going to be. We must know without a doubt that are salvation is secured in Christ.

The only saving name is in Jesus Christ, the one that gave his life for all mankind. It was by his obedience to the Father that brought us this awesome salvation.

We welcome the anointed man of God, Bishop Richard Phillips and Lady Donna Phillips of The Harvest is Ripe Ministries, Virginia. He has been a dear friend of our ministry for over 30 years. Let's show him some AWM Love and Support as he shares the Word of God with us.

May God's Peace be yours, Bishop George

HOLY SPIRIT EMPOWERING: THREE TERMS, ONE REALITY

You shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now . . . you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you . . . And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. (Act 1:5, Act 1:8; and Act 2:4)

When the book of Acts addresses Holy Spirit

empowerment for ministry, three different terms are used to describe the same reality. When Jesus promised this power, He used the term "baptized with." "You shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." When He indicated that this power would result in a worldwide witness, the term "come upon you" was used." You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you." Then, when these promises of the Spirit were fulfilled, the term employed was "filled with." "And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit."

It is clear that these three sets of terms in Acts 1 and 2 are all referring to the same spiritual phenomenon, the Holy Spirit empowering Jesus' followers for witness. Each terminology may carry its own descriptive implications. To be "baptized with" the Spirit is like being inundated by Him. To have the Spirit "come upon you" is like being "impacted from above" by Him. To be "filled with" the Spirit is like overflowing with Him. Nevertheless, although the words each bring their own picture, they all are describing the same reality. All three terms are biblically accurate, although "filled with the Holy Spirit" is used most frequently throughout Acts.

These promises of Holy Spirit's empowering cannot be monopolized by any denominational group or theological heritage. Nor can they be ignored by any individual or segment within the body of Christ. These truths are for all of God's children. Every disciple of the Lord Jesus must continue to learn and to grow in this essential spiritual empowerment.

Perhaps a word of clarification is in order. These promises are not about the Spirit indwelling the people of God. The Holy Spirit definitely lives within every born again believer in Jesus Christ. "Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" (1Co 3:16). "And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit'" (Joh 20:22). These promises are about the indwelling Spirit flooding and overflowing our lives with the empowering reality of His presence.

Dear Lord Jesus, You came to give us life abundant. Please fill my life to overflowing with the empowering work of Your Spirit. Lord, I am not seeking personal benefits. I am asking to become a more effective witness. I need the Holy Spirit's power that I might reflect the reality of the risen Christ, in Your mighty name, Amen.
