

As we humbly seek the Lord in His word, we behold His glory therein. The wonderful consequence is we "are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory." From one area after another, from one degree to another, we are being changed into the likeness of the glorious one we are beholding. This process is carried on as only the Holy Spirit could do it: "just as by the Spirit of the Lord."

PASTOR'S VOICE

Greetings to Absolute Worship Ministries mothers. Welcome to all our family and friends on this awesome day May the 14th 2023. It is on this day that we give special recognition to the women that have served and supported us throughout our lives.

What an awesome responsibility it is to be a mother by childbirth or by just sharing your life with someone who needs nurturing and tender love and care.

Today I must give thanks to God for my mother, Mother Emma Williams. One that stood by me until the very end. She was always willing to share her compassion with those that came within her circle of influence. It has been 23 years now that she has gone to be with the Lord. Just like many that are here today that have lost their mother, she is definitely missed but I know that she gave her love to the fullest extent.

Secondly, I would like to salute Lady Sarion Williams who has been an exceptional example of a mother. To her four children, her 10 grandchildren, to her 2.5 great grandchildren, to the AWM family, and to a host of friends. We have watched her go out of her way to make sure that those around her could be blessed. What an awesome Gift that she has been to us all.

And lastly, I want to give thanks to God for the Absolute Worship ministry mothers. It is truly a great blessing to know that the mothers that God has allowed to be in this ministry seek to train-up and direct their children to know and love the Lord. It is my prayer that each of the mothers will be encouraged to continue doing what God has divinely created them to do. Amidst all the challenges that are in the world today God has promised to help you as you continue to serve those that are in your life.

Special Thank you, to Minister Julia Teasley for coming today and being a blessing to AWM Mothers.

May God richly bless you and keep you. Bishop George

LIBERTY TO BE TRANSFORMED

But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord. (2Co_3:18)

Living day by day under the new covenant of grace allows the Holy Spirit to liberate us spiritually. "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (2Co_3:17). Where the Holy Spirit is allowed to work, there is liberty to be transformed.

This transformation process is for every believer who is willing to live by the terms of the new covenant: "But we all." The terms are simple: renounce self-sufficiency ("Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves"—2Co_3:5) and rely on God's sufficiency ("but our sufficiency is from God"—2Co_3:5). Those who reject human resources (the flesh) seek God "with unveiled face." They come humbly, without any veils of pretense or self-justification.

Coming to the Lord in this manner brings an ongoing blessing: "beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord." Three mirrors reflect the glory of Christ from heavenly places into the experience of the redeemed here on earth: the creation, the church, and the scriptures. The universe declares His glory. "The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows His handiwork" (Psa_19:1). Also, the Lord can be seen living in His people. "For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh" (2Co_4:11). These two mirrors are helpful, but they can be distorted by sin. The mirror that reflects the Lord's glory flawlessly is His word. "The law of the LORD is perfect . . . these (the scriptures) are they which testify of Me" (Psa_19:7; Joh_5:39).
