

when He releases us from our task, He will disclose to our wondering gaze what He, the great Artist, has woven out of those toils that now seem so sterile."

There was great joy in the lives of these early Christians. They parted with their worldly possessions, but they were filled with gladness, and probably this gave them favour with the people. There was true helpfulness among them. Each went shares with the rest. The give and take of life is so important. We are all glad enough to take what we can get, but how about to give! We like to be waited on, but how about the serving? Yet true gladness and happiness depends, not on being ministered to, but in ministry. When we have learnt the secret of praising God in and for everything; when we refuse to shut ourselves up in our own griefs, but compel our dull spirits to enter into the joys of those around, then we shall have no difficulty in living joyfully and gladly.

PRAYER

O Lord, renew our spirits and draw our hearts unto Thyself that our work may not be to us a burden, but a delight; and give us such a mighty love to Thee as may sweeten all our obedience. AMEN.

PASTOR'S VOICE

Glory be to our God from whom all blessings flow. We have been granted another awesome opportunity to assemble in the House of the Lord. Each of us should take full advantage of this great privilege that many today wish they could enjoy.

We have so much to be grateful for. When we see in here all of the events happening in our world We should realize that only because of his grace and mercy that we been blessed to not have to experience these types of tragedies. The horrible fire that destroyed Maui, Hawaii, chaos that is happening in Haiti, heat waves of 114 degrees in many of our western states.

We owe God a heart of gratitude for keeping us through it all. Yes we have our share of test and trials but through it all we have learned to trust in Jesus, we have learned to trust in God.

As we gather today in this place that has been hallowed to our God. We must offer to him the sacrifice of praise. This can only happen by each of us making a meaningful investment into are relationship with our God. It is true that we can worship him anywhere. But there is something wonderful and enriching about being in corporate worship. Today the view of worship has changed since 2020, but the desire of God is still the same. He is looking for true worshippers that will worship him in spirit and in truth.

I would like to invite and remind each of you that consider Absolute Worship ministries as your ministry home, and me as your pastor, to join me each Wednesday night at 7:00 PM for teaching from God Word. Each week I strive to seek God and prepare a lesson that will be a blessing to the body of Christ. I do realize that our lives are full and busy. But we must understand the importance of coming together to study God's word. It helps strengthen and unify us as the body of Christ. Please make the sacrifice each week to join the zoom bible class and receive from the Lord.

Dont forget to join in one of our many prayer conferences during the week. Just those few minutes of connecting with other believers in the body of Christ can be the breakthrough that you need during your day.

May God richly bless & keep you,
Bishop George. Feel free to email me this week:

THE EQUILIBRIUM OF LIFE

"And day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they did take their food with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people." — (R.V.).

IN EVERY life there should be the worship of the Temple and the service of the Home. Do we realize that God is directing and locating our life-plan? The Home is His arrangement for us equally with the Temple, and the daily meal may be an ordinance as the Lord's Supper. Do you take your food "with gladness and singleness of heart," or do you grumble over your meals? Do you perform common tasks gladly and gratefully? This is only possible when we come to understand that the greatness of life consists, not so much in doing so-called great things, but in doing small things greatly! "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

We have been compared to the weavers of the Gobelin tapestry, who may have to work a number of apparently drab and sombre, uninteresting and common things into the pattern on the wrong side of the woof. It is only when the texture is completed that they can see and admire the design that is worthy of the palace of the king! So it is with your life and mine: "We work, we suffer, and see neither the end nor the fruit. But God sees it, and
