PASTOR'S VOICE

Greetings to the Absolute Worship family. All praise be to our King and Lord. Once again, we have been given the privilege to glorify and lift up the only true God, Lord Jesus Christ.

Today our hearts are filled with gratitude and praise for God's continual blessings in our lives. That does not mean that we haven't experienced challenges and trials along this journey. But we must realize that it could have been much worse if it had not been for the Lord on our side. The songwriter Andre Crouch said through it all I've learned to trust in Jesus, I've learned to trust in God. That must be the realization of every believer that are trust must be in God.

On last week I shared with the Absolute Worship family that I have been informed by Minister Saleen and Tamara Adams that the Lord is impressing them to begin to develop their International Worship Outreach. And they will be transitioning from Absolute Worship to develop their ministry of Focus in the Fire. I would like to say that I am indeed grateful and appreciative of nearly 10 years of faithful service to the Absolute Worship ministries. I am praying that this new development will become a true blessing for them as they continue to do the work of the Kingdom of God. We must all say that Minister Tamara has blessed not only Absolute Worship but many members of the body of Christ during her time of ministry here with us. Minister Saleem has likewise been a solid and strong support to Absolute Worship ministries. It goes without saying that we will tremendously miss these servants of God, but God knows the path that each of us must take. So as the transition is completed let's lift them up in prayer as they close this chapter of ministry at Absolute Worship ministries.

As we see God elevate and expand the body of Christ it is necessary for those that have not yet engaged in the calling on their life to begin doing what God has empowered you to do. I have reached out to about 15 of you that have been attending our ministry to let you know that on October the 8th at 6:00 there will be a newcomer's workshop here at the church. If you are interested in becoming actively involved with Absolute Worship ministries, please contact Minister Kenny Williams today so that you can be enrolled in this class.

Please join us in one of our many prayer calls during the week. Just a few minutes of connecting with other believers in the body of Christ can be the breakthrough that you need during your day. Also our Wednesday night Bible study on zoom and in-person in the sanctuary. If transportation is needed, please let us know as soon as possible.

May God richly bless & keep you,
Bishop George. Feel free to email me this week:

BEAUTIFUL GARMENTS

"Awake, awake; put on thy strength; put on thy beautiful garments." — Isa 52:1.

"It is high time to awake out of sleep: let us cast off the works of darkness; let us put on the armour of light." — Rom 13:11-12.

PUT ON strength. We have not to purchase it, or generate it by prayers and resolutions, but simply to put it on. As we awake in the early morning hour, and have to pass out into the arena of life, which has so often witnessed failure and defeat, let us put on the strength and might of the living Christ. He waits to strengthen us with all power, according to the riches of His glory. Do not simply pray to be kept and helped, but put on the whole armour of God. "The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?"

Put on beautiful garments. The emblem of the life of the Christian soul is that of the bridegroom or the bride decked with jewels; or a garden filled with beautiful flowers (Isa 61:10-11). We are not only to do right things, but we must do them beautifully; not only to speak the truth, but to speak it in love; not only to give to those who need our help, but to do it graciously and joyously. We must cultivate the bloom of the soul, which is made up of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, generosity. The beauty of the Lord our God must be upon us.

We cannot weave these beautiful robes, or fashion them out of our own nature, but they are all prepared for us in Christ, who is "made unto us Wisdom, and Righteousness, Sanctification, and Redemption." Let us wake up out of sleep, put off the works of darkness, and put on the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the armour of Light.

PRAYER

Lord of Power and Love! I come, trusting in Thine almighty strength, and Thine infinite goodness, to beg from Thee what is wanting in myself; even that grace which shall help me such to be, and such to do, as Thou wouldst have me. I will trust Thee, in whom is everlasting strength. Be Thou my Helper, to carry me on beyond my own strength, and to make all that I think, and speak, and do, acceptable in Thy sight, through Jesus Christ. AMEN.
