

We know how electric force may be applied to all the various machinery of human life. In one place used for the beaming light, in another to drive the motor car, or to flash the message of music and speech from one continent to another. So Faith is able to appropriate God's might for any purpose that lies within the compass of the life-task, whether active or passive. (See Heb 11:32-34, Heb 11:35-39.)

God bears a witness to all who trust Him. He never fails us in the hour of need. His response is the echo of our appeal. As soon as the uplifted arm of the tramcar touches the overhead wire, there is the spark, and the immediate entrance of electric power. So God answers faith.

PRAYER

O God, we are full of need, but we have learnt that Thou givest power to the faint and to those that have no right. Change our weakness into Thy strength; our ignorance into Thy wisdom; our changefulness into Thine everlasting constancy. AMEN

PASTOR'S VOICE

Praise God absolute worship family. It is a great day to be in the House of the Lord. I pray that each of you will use this opportunity to your advantage. There are many today that would love to experience being in a place of worship.

Special welcome to all our first-time guests. It is our prayer that this worship experience will be a blessing to you, and that you will receive a word from the Lord.

Today our hearts are heavy because of the current events that are happening in Israel. We have been told by the word of God to pray for the peace of Israel. It is in this part of the Holy Land that prophecy has been given that Christ would return to the earth. There is no doubt that the signs of the time reveal that Christ return is closer now than before. In Psm.122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. There is a blessing for those that pray for Israel. We must pray that Israel will always acknowledge God as their source and not their own constructed efforts. We know that the same Israel in the Bible times often resorted to their own defenses. It also should be mentioned that the Palestinians must acknowledge and recognize that Issas descendants were from the promised seed of Abraham. This struggle has been going on since Jacob and Esau, and there is no sign that this dispute will ever be settled before the return of Christ. May I encourage you to prepare now for Christ soon return.

We're thankful to be able to receive an inspiring word from one of our own Ministers, Andre Louissaint. We know him to be a lover of God's word, a fervent prayer warrior, and zealous contender for the faith. Please give him your support and prayers as he is used as God's mouthpiece for this hour.

Please don't forget to join one of our many prayer conference calls during the week. Also make plans today to join us on this Wednesday night as we have a guest Evangelist Kelsey Decker. She has a tremendous testimony of being delivered from the streets, prostitution, go go bars, and drugs. She is now traveling the world with her new release book and testimony of God's great deliverance. Please join us Wednesday for prayer at 6:30 PM and service starts at 7:00 PM.

Special invite to all that have not completed the new member's workshop. Please get with Bishop George and lady Sarion immediately to get scheduled for your sessions.

May God richly bless & keep you,
Bishop George. Feel free to email me this week:

THE ROLL OF FAITH

"Time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah... who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises."— Heb 11:32-33 (R. V.).

FAITH IS the link between our souls and God. It is the capacity of entering into fellowship with the Eternal Love and Power, so that we are able to do all things with the sense that it is not we who do them, but God in us and with us. Faith is the open door and window towards God. In faith our heart goes out towards God in clinging dependence, and God comes in to strengthen us with His Divine fullness.

In human life, when we trust a man, we draw from him all that he is able to supply; in the Divine life, faith draws upon the resources of God, so that they flow freely into our nature, and the results of our life-work are immensely increased. Faith is possible amid a great deal of ignorance. It is clear that Gideon, Barak, Samson, and Jephthah were ignorant of the truth which the Gospel has revealed, and yet we learn that their work was largely due to their faith. Dispensations come and go; the revelation of God grows from less to more; but the attitude of faith is always the same—in the simple woman that touched the hem of Christ's garment, as in St. John the beloved disciple, who had years of training in Christ's School.

Faith achieves very different results. In some, it produces the heroic strength that turns the battle from the gate; in some, the passive suffering that endures the long ordeal of pain. Here, it turns the edge of the sword; there, shuts the mouths of lions.
