

sufficient explanation for the present condition of the world, if we knew it. Therefore, judge nothing before the time, but be of good cheer, and stablish your hearts, for your God will come and not keep silence. In the meanwhile let us keep the word of His patience, and manifest that patience and faith of the saints.

PRAYER

Most Blessed Lord, guide our wandering feet, we beseech Thee, into the love of God and into Thine own infinite patience. Forgive us that we have so often been impulsive and headstrong, that we have murmured against Thy apparent slowness in answering our prayers. Hush our unquiet hearts with Thine own peace. AMEN.

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. - ROMANS 5:8 NIV

PASTOR'S VOICE

Greetings Absolute Worship Ministries. Thank God for the privilege to be able to give his name the praise.

What a glorious opportunity it is to be able to assemble in the House of the Lord. With so much taking place around our world we don't know how long we will be able to have the freedom to come into one place and magnify the glorious name of Jesus. We just heard in the news that Israel is in war with the Palestinians in Gaza. This is only a sign that the king is soon to come. All the signs in our world today point toward the prophecies that have been spoken of in the holy scriptures. We are living in the end time, and it would benefit everyone to make sure that their relationship with their God is right. There is no time for playing a hypocrite are going through the motions. Your soul is very valuable, and we must make sure that we made the proper preparations with our savior Lord Jesus Christ.

Today the Lord is leading me to share with the body of Christ about the strength that comes from our Lord. There is much that comes against Everyone weather you are committed to Christ or not. The challenges of this world can wear on us to our very core. We must understand where strength lies. We must recognize where to go in the time of weakness. Bishop Eddie Murray wrote the song "You are my strength, strength like no other". Today God is reminding us that the strength that he gives is like no other strength. His ability to hold us up, to support us during our test, to comfort us in times of uncertainty. This strength that comes from God is like no other. It is foolish for us to expect to find strength that compares to the strength of our God. Strength that is with us in darkness, in the time of the shadow of death, and the times when we are overwhelmed, in the times when we don't know what to do. This is the God kind of strength. I beg of you today to seek strength like no other.

Thank God today for the opportunity to baptize several precious souls in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is recorded in Acts chapter 2 verse 38 that we must be baptized in the only saving name Lord Jesus Christ. If you have not made that choice, please don't put it off until tomorrow. Today is the day of salvation allowing God to empower you with his Holy Spirit and allow us to bury you in that saving name Jesus Christ.

Special reminder that this evening at 6:00 PM we will be meeting for our AWM new members workshop here in the building. Please join Lady Sarion and I and Absolute Worship staff as we prepare to grow in Jesus

May God richly bless & keep you,

Bishop George. Feel free to email me this week:

STEPPING HEAVENWARD

"And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ." – 2Th 3:5 (R.V.).

THE BELOVED disciple greets his companions as sharing "in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ" (Rev 1:9). It is a noble combination; as though the royalty of Christian character were in proportion to the share we have in the quiet waiting of our Lord. He waited patiently from all eternity, until the fullness of the times had come, and the hour of His Incarnation struck; He waited patiently for thirty years in Nazareth, whilst preparing for His life-work. When He returned in triumph to the Father, He sat down at His right hand until His enemies were made His footstool. Throughout the ages He quietly waits, in sure expectation of the destined end, when all rule and authority and power shall be put down. All the anguish of the world lies on His heart; every question as to the righteousness and equity of God is felt by Him. He bears all with unfaltering patience, because He sees the end, and knows that at the last God will be All in All. It is into this love and patience that we are to be led.

"Into the Love of God." Every time we dare to affirm that, notwithstanding appearances, God is Love; every time that we evince that love to others, even though our own heart is breaking; every time we say No to self and Yes to God, we make further progress into His Love. Dare to believe in the love of God, even when the darkness seems to veil it. Dare to believe that it is over all, and through all, and in all.

"Into the patience of Christ." Let us exercise Christ's patience until the sorrows and trials of life have achieved their destined purpose. There is a
